CASC 101 (Arifa)

The California Association of Student Councils (CASC) is a student-led nonprofit founded by the California Department of Education to help students develop leadership and policymaking skills. CASC members research, draft, and present legislation—for example, SB 1445, which improved school restroom access—and run 12 student-led regions across California, each representing about 500,000 students.

- Region 2 Conference:
 - When: October 27, 9 AM–4 PM
 - Where: Sacramento County Office of Education
 - Purpose: Students collaborate on education policy ideas, network with local legislators, and earn 10 service hours through hands-on experience in policy development.

- Sister Conferences:
 - SABE (Student Advisory Board on Education): 3-day conference where students present proposals to the California State Board of Education.
 - SABLE (Student Advisory Board on Legislative Education): 3-day January event where students meet senators and assembly members and create their own legislative proposals.
